Northern Rivers Food Links Information

Clarence Valley Council recognises the importance of farmers markets in promoting healthy lifestyles and encouraging local food production, distribution and consumption.

Farmers markets allow consumers to access fresh, locally produced food products direct from the grower and contributes to:

- local economic growth
- food security
- food and nutrition education
- the economic, social and health capital of the host community
- business incubation
- the preservation of farmland and sustainable agriculture
- the consumption of fresh, locally produced food
- promote cultural diversity through food
- reduced food miles
